London's top private dining rooms

November 21, 2017  HardensBytes

Looking for the perfect place to hold a private Christmas dinner party, work event or family get-together this festive season? Look no further. We've rounded up 20 of London's best private dining rooms to suit all tastes and budgets...

Chutney Mary SW1

Lunch menus from: £39 pp

Dinner menus from: £60 pp

In its "lavish and beautifully decorated" St James's home for over two years now, this "very glam" relocated stalwart (which for over two decades was on the fringe of Chelsea) remains one of London's foremost 'posh' Indians, serving "brilliantly spiced" contemporary cuisine, plus "fantastic cocktails" ("the Pukka bar is great for a clandestine drink").

Chutney Mary offers two private dining rooms, with an extensive menu of options to cater for private celebrations, lunches and dinners or business events. The Club Room, can seat 18-32 guests for a sit down meal, or 60 for a cocktail reception. The room has space for pre-meal drinks. The Crystal Room, can seat from 10-16 guests for a sit down meal.
